April 17, 2014 Pre-Proposal Conference Set for Brookhaven National Laboratory Management-and-Operations Contract Competition

April 11, 2014 Registration Deadline for Conference at Brookhaven Lab

UPTON, NY – The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) today announced that it has scheduled a Pre-Proposal Conference at Brookhaven National Laboratory (BNL) to discuss the recently released Request for Proposals (RFP) for the competitive selection of an approximately $3.25 billion, five-year, management-and-operations contract for BNL. BNL is a major DOE Office of Science multi-program research facility on Long Island, NY, 60 miles east of New York City.

The Pre-Proposal Conference starts at 9:15 a.m. on Thursday, April 17, 2014, in the BioScience Conference Facility/Computational Science Center, Building 463B, at BNL. The conference agenda is available on the BNL Competition website:
<http://BNLcompetition.science.energy.gov>

Interested parties must register to attend the Pre-Proposal Conference. The deadline for registration is Friday, April 11, 2014 at 3 p.m. Eastern Time. Attendance at the Pre-Proposal Conference is not mandatory for potential offerors. To register, submit an email to BNLcompetition@ch.doe.gov with the subject line "Pre-proposal Conference".
